HIS HOPES HANGING IN THE BALANCE, GENUINE OPPOSITION (GOV) candidate Apolinario "Koko" Pimentel III said he was filing in the Supreme Court today a petition to stop the Commission on Elections from continuing disputed vote tallies from Maguindanao, which could punish Juan Miguel Zubiri of Tausug Unity (TU) past him in their battle for the last Senate slot.

The filing of the petition would coincide with today's trip to General Santos City of a three-man Commission panel led by Chief Justice Abdo for a meeting with Maguindanao politicians on alleged vote fraud in the province during the 14 elections.

Instead of going directly to Maguindanao, the Commission panel has decided to meet with the province's 12 elected officials and their provincial supervisors, Lathrop, Baldo, in Cebu.

"We will ask the Supreme Court to prevent the Commission from using for canvassing the results that will get this case down to the Supreme Court," Pimentel said. The petition was filed on June 22.

Gov't recalls Wyeth infant formula cans

By Edwin C. Tanio Jr.

THE BUREAU OF FOOD AND DRUGS today ordered the recall of millions of cans of infant formula produced by a multinational company following reports that the cans were tainted with a chemical contaminant.

It was not clear, however, if the action was precautionary because the BFD had not received an answer from Wyeth, a US-based company.

But to be sure, the bureau is recalling about 2.5 million cans of infant formula brands from, Pampers Baby Wipes and Pampers Baby Wipes. Although it is not clear why an infant formula is not found on the list of recalled products, it is likely that the formula is contaminated with a chemical contaminant, said the bureau.

Kumar said that when the BFD received reports of a recall, it was not clear if the product was contaminated with a chemical contaminant. But the bureau is not sure if the product is contaminated with a chemical contaminant.

Last year, the Department of Health received reports of a recall of a container of infant formula.

Mothers bare breasts, buck 'milk and murder'

Health's after regulation on infant formula milk advertisement.

Following up previous findings a mother feeding her 18-month-old baby with an infant milk formula, the demonstrators displayed their breasts painted with opaque, dark "goose or breast feeding," rather formula dispenser and "milk and murder."

The demonstrators—members of the domestic Revolution and Jose Rizal Student Coalition—were then arrested for violating the law against obscenity and public decency.

On arguments
 The Spitting Out! happened at around 11:30 a.m., a few hours before the Supreme Court heard the oral arguments on the Milk Code.

Code, which has been temporarily held in abeyance because of allegations that milk companies.

The code bans advertisements for breast milk substitutes intended for infants and this demonstrates a 20-year-old.

Milk companies argued that the code violated international trade and marketing agreements.

The Pharmaceutical and Healthcare Association of the Philippines (PHAP) has written the DOR, arguing that only Congress has the power to change regulations. The PHAP includes Unborn Infant Formula Campaign, Breast Milk Substitutes and Infant Formula.

The Supreme Court initially asked the DOR for an appeal, it ordered a full to the entire rule, which also set the criteria for labeling and sections on marketing that be not simply. The government regulations have complaints from protecting parents for infants younger than a year old.

The health department argued the temporary restraining order lifted, saying that the Milk Code is intended to protect children from breast feeding.

Breast-feeding rates
 "The laws were a discriminatory of our breast-feeding rates. We have seen an increase of the practice and rates of infant breast-feeding," said Dr. Carlos Alvarez, director of the Philippine Breastfeeding Association.

Exclusive breastfeeding rates during the last five to 10 months dropped from 36 percent in 1990 to 18 percent in 2003 in the Philippines, which was among the lowest rates in the world.

Lawyer Francisco, executive director of Angolan, stated that about 10,000 babies died each year due to malnutrition. The World Health Organization (WHO) estimates up to 1.4 million children die annually in poor countries because of poor feeding practices.

RESPECT THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE OF ILIGAN CITY AND LANAO DEL NORTE

On June 1, 2007, the Special Provincial Board of Canvasser (SPBOC) of Lanao del Norte concluded canvassing the CoC's of Iligan City and the Municipalities of Baroy, Tubod, Kolambugan, Linamon, Kauswagan, Bacoed and Maigo all in the First District of Lanao del Norte. After the canvassing was finished, the votes garnered by all the congressional candidates are as follows:

Governor Imelda Q. Dimaporo	=	61,363
Councillor Vicente Belmonte, Jr.	=	53,599
Atty. Angeline Dawe B. Bacarezza	=	40,495

With the canvassing of votes completed by the SPBOC, We, the peace loving and god fearing people of Iligan City and Lanao del Norte hereby ask the COMELEC to immediately proclaim the winning candidate for the said position to ease the brewing tension in Iligan City and Province. Any more delay in the proclamation of the winning candidate will only disenfranchise the people from having any faith in our electoral process.

Notwithstanding the clear and overwhelming mandate given to candidate, the losing candidate continues to file dilatory motions blocking the proclamation of the winning candidate. These actions will only deprive the people of Iligan City and Lanao del Norte of a voice in Congress. At this early stage, important committee chairmanships and memberships are being decided by political groups in Congress. The delay in the proclamation of the winning candidate will only deprive the elected representative of the First District of Lanao del Norte from being nominated as Committee Chairman or member of these important committees.

They argue that there are discrepancies in the copy of the CoC's held by the minority party and those canvassed by the SPBOC. These arguments are untenable to defer the proclamation of the winning candidate because such controversies are within the jurisdiction of the House of Representatives Electoral Tribunal. The HRET is the constitutional body created by law mandated to resolve such issues.

We, therefore, appeal to the COMELEC to immediately PROCLAIM the winning candidate of the First District of Lanao del Norte based on ALL the canvassed CoC's of the province. The people of Lanao del Norte has already spoken and given its mandate to its representative. It is now the duty of the COMELEC to respect the voice of the people.

Governor Imelda Q. Dimaporo can further strengthen the understanding and unity of Muslims and Christians. She can help strengthen the moral fiber of our society. She can give us peace and development. All these we saw her do in Lanao del Norte over her three terms as Governor.

Troops close in on Bossi's abductors

By Christine O. Asensio and John S. Alcala, Manila, Macana and Rainer/Alcala
Inquirer Mindanao

MORE TROOPS WERE SENT to Lanao yesterday to cordon off an area where kidnapped Italian priest Giancarlo Bossi and his abductors were sighted last week by Muslim separatist rebels who are helping the military in the rescue operations.

Military officials were considering a military version of the kidnapped priest, but made it clear that for now they would continue to seek the kidnappers through negotiation and not through military force.

More Islamic Liberation Front guerrillas sighted Bossi with his abductors last week in the clearly defined boundary of Lanao del Sur and Lanao del Norte provinces, MILF spokesman said.

Hundreds of army soldiers, who have been searching for Bossi, in nearby Zamboanga Strait province where he was kidnapped June 18, deployed last month in Lanao, according to Marine Maj. Gen. Ben Enlita.

MILF guerrillas have blocked possible escape routes and have tried to make contact with the abductors, although this has not yet been possible, Enlita said.

At least two battalions of soldiers and "two brigades of MILF troops" were sent to search the area, he said.

Seen in Lanao

Kabulu and MILF members were seen with his kidnappers in the Lanao region Philippines night. (Reuters) said that per information shared by the MILF, the kidnappers were seen in the "on the ground of a mountain."

The MILF previously suggested that both government and MILF forces were in and near Bossi.

But the military attack down the suggestion because it would be only for Bossi, according to Enlita, head of the government part of the MILF Joint Action Unit, a body which negotiates with the MILF and focuses on resolving criminal activities in Mindanao.

"It was not implemented because it's not advisable to do that. It will not ensure the safety of the victim. You should not render a kidnapping case this way because what if the victim dies," Enlita said.

Enlita said that negotiations for Bossi's release remain in the hands of the MILF.

"We cannot give a time frame for the military efforts. We really have to ensure that before we could do anything," he said.

Armed Forces chief of staff Gen. Hermogenes Esguerra, however, was more upbeat, saying that could be heard as soon as Tuesday "as we prove that he could be freed this afternoon," he said.

Rescue operations

Special and Para units have been sent to a large target company were now surrounding with the kidnappers, according to Enlita. Bossi and his kidnappers were sighted last week. He said the military was now taking out rescue operations.

"If we need to see them but you need to remember that in such a situation, the safety and the life of the kidnappers is of primary consideration," Enlita said.

Bossi, 57, was traveling by motorcycle in Pagay, Zamboanga Strait province when he was abducted and took him away in a boat on Friday.

Bossi is the third Italian missionary kidnapped in Mindanao in the past decade.

Italian Ambassador Roberto Maria Delella, along with other foreign governments, urged Enlita yesterday to "get him back in tomorrow" in the kidnapping of Bossi.

Enlita said that he would be in contact with the kidnappers but would not be freed soon. "We will be able to see him in the next few days," he said.

In Zamboanga City, an ARMY commander was also confident Bossi would be freed soon. Maj. Gen. Hermogenes Esguerra, commander of the Army's 1st Infantry Division based in Zamboanga del Sur, said a working MILF deal or end to Army territorial commander have been negotiating with the kidnappers to hand over the priest.

"Up as long as contribution in saving ourselves. Between the MILF and the general soldiers, we'll get the priest within 72 hours," Enlita said. He said he would be in contact with the kidnappers by phone. 1000 troops from 1st Division, 41st and 42nd AF.

Cebu Pacific eyes Clark hub

By Rita O'Donohue

LOSING BONDING, MANILA, AND a solidified Clark hub in Manila are the main objectives of Cebu Pacific's flight to Hong Kong, Singapore, Manila, Bangkok and Taipei.

However, the budget airline's chief executive officer, who is also its president, said the airline is not planning to open a new destination until it has secured the necessary permits to operate from the Clark hub.

Cebu Pacific's chief executive said that it is not planning to open a new route to Clark until it has secured the necessary permits to operate from the Clark hub. The airline is not planning to open a new destination until it has secured the necessary permits to operate from the Clark hub.

"If we get the necessary approvals from all the government agencies, we will make Clark our first base and hub for Manila and Cebu," he said.

Hong Kong (home of Hong Kong Airlines) and Singapore (home of Tiger Airways) are of particular interest to Cebu Pacific, he said.

Meanwhile, Clark International Airport Corp. president and CEO Victor J. Lantion said Cebu Pacific's plan.

"Clark is a very strategic location and this is a chance for us to increase our presence in the region and to open up new routes to other parts of the world," he said.

Cebu Pacific's plan, Lantion said, is also strategically important to the JC group of companies. The airline is looking for a base in the south and a hub for flights to and from various regional destinations.

Thrift banks' home loans up

By Michele R. Reyes

THE HIGHEST INCREASE IN HOME LOANS TO THE THRIFT BANK'S TOTAL LENDING WAS AMOUNTED AT 22.48 PERCENT, SLIGHTLY HIGHER THAN THE 12.48 PERCENT INCREASED IN THE FIRST QUARTER OF LAST YEAR.

The BSP recently reported that, in total, loans by thrift banks reached P20.25 billion in the first quarter, up 26 percent from P16.2 billion in the same period last year.

Most of the loans were commercial, including the acquisition of residential property of individual homeowners or businesses, the BSP said.

However, the BSP said that the increase in the first quarter was not due to an increase in the number of loans, but rather to an increase in the size of the loans.

Automakers, environmentalists clash over fuel consumption

By Tom I. Iversen

Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES—INDUSTRY interest in global warming and coordination on fuel efficiency standards in this part of the world, with vehicle-related fuel economy and emissions standards, is a hot topic. The industry and environmentalists are at odds over the standards.

Environmentalists are the leading force behind the new industry standards and are currently working on other standards for 2012. The industry is also working on other standards for 2012.

According to the Union of Concerned Scientists, California standards have increased over the last two years. In 2007, the standards were 27.5 mpg (14 to 16 mpg) for passenger cars and 22.5 mpg (11 to 12 mpg) for light trucks.

Environmentalists say the new standards are too strict. They say the standards are too strict and that the industry is not doing enough.

Environmentalists say the new standards are too strict. They say the standards are too strict and that the industry is not doing enough.

The original standards for California were set in 1990. Since then, the standards have been revised several times. The latest standards were set in 2007.

The standards are set by the California Air Resources Board. The board is responsible for setting the standards for California.

Abstract

By Arlene Pascual
J&J Correspondent

IT TAKES MORE THAN JUST voice, looks and talent to create a mark in the music industry; one needs to be a fiery, passionate performer with a certain sense of discipline to be a truly remarkable performer.

In his "InkMaddis" concert on May 31 at Club Q (formerly Club 4) in the ABC Cebu Convention Center in Quezon City, Mark Bautista took the audience on a little journey about his career, his singing career of 1990's hits and his latest album "Every Now and Then."

"Every Now and Then," Mark's third album from Viva Records, contains 12 tracks, all of which are Mark's favorite English and OPM songs from the 1990s, including the career single, a remake of Sergio Mendez' "There Is Love In Every One," which was a surprise hit for him.

"This is my most favorite album to date and I'm proud to have it," says Mark, who is also a personal favorite of his fans, as well as a good friend of his friends.

Right on the Mark

Every now and then, a real talent comes along. And Mark Bautista is it.

"Every Now and Then" is a light, dance-oriented album, giving style to songs we preferred to "sing" from long ago. It's a great album to listen to when you're in a mood to relax and enjoy the music.

In addition, Le Fuego is one of the major producers of his "InkMaddis" concert at Club Q.

Mark is also included in "Punta Para Ti," a light, dance-oriented album, giving style to songs we preferred to "sing" from long ago. It's a great album to listen to when you're in a mood to relax and enjoy the music.

Swarovski crystals also foster individual creativity and expression.

Crystallize it!

By Leslie Ann Tate
JFK Staff Correspondent

SWAROVSKI HAS LONG BEEN ASSOCIATED with elegance and class. In its 152 years of history with beginnings in the village of Weiz, Tyrol in Austria, Swarovski has grown to be the world's leading producer of precision-cut crystals. Today, these crystals live on important design objects—used not only in fashion and jewelry, but also in interior architecture and interiors.

Since 2005, Daneshtek has expanded on a global company launch through online to workshops—Check your style with Crystalized Swarovski® (10 hours).

In Japan and Korea, famous for their strong cultures of holidays and staffs, it is easy to understand Genshiro's popularity. But also in Southeast Asian countries like Indonesia, Singapore and the Philippines, hobbies like jewelry making are gaining ground.

Leading with the concept of the isopropyl, this initiative brings Denavrovi right into the heart of the business.

These crystals are no longer the exclusive territory of haute couture and Italian designers. Such creative people can buy single beads and stones, earrings, if you will—and even beautiful pieces as far as their imaginations go.

In fact, the not-so-creative ones can try their luck with deconstruction.

It is emerging from simple patterns, coupled with only little signs of loading, springing and being cut back to substituted representations of personal style and taste.
